Dr. Bagher,

I am in receipt of your sole source justification, but I need some further clarification.

1. Are there any other systems that allow for examination of vessel function in a high-throughput manner?

No, there are not other systems. If you want more details, you can state that no other systems allow for examination of vessel function in a high-throughput manner using wire myography.

2. If not, why is that requirement essential for your work?

It allows us to reduce animal usage, which is in our animal use protocols.

3. Is it essential that this system work with the existing equipment?

Yes, especially for the purpose of interchangeable parts/accessory components.

4. Is this particular system needed for research continuity?

Yes.

I apologize for the inconvenience, but sole source justifications are becoming increasingly scrutinized. Thank you for your assistance, and please feel free to contact me with any questions or concerns.

Best wishes,
Robby
