NOTE: AWARD CHANGE:

Original PO to Educator's Depot was cancelled due to Collapse of sample tent after rainfall. Due to this event, it has been determined that the rental of tents would be a better option. On 8.20.20 an award was made to Tailgate Guys for the 4 month rental of tents.

Q&A Board

Subject = Surface (Stealth Consulting LLC)

Private Thread

Q: What type of ground will the tents be used on? Concrete? Asphalt? Grass? Dirt?

Question added by: Kenny Isbell

8/4/2020 6:29 PM CDT

A: The Overview/Specifcatin sheet clearly states that the tents will be installed on CONCRETE SURFACES.

Answered by: Clyde Oberg

8/5/2020 1:43 PM CDT

Subject = Quantity (OK'S Cascade Company, LLC)

Public Thread

Q: The quantities request in Amendment 1 states "The purchase or rental of the tents should reflect quantities of 48 in submitted bid pricing". However, in the items listed on the Items link pricing is asked for a quantity of 1 for each tent size. listed. Are you asking for pricing for quantities of 48 or for pricing for quantities of 1 per tent size?

Question added by: KEN NANCE

8/3/2020 7:29 AM CDT

A: To reiterate Addemdum I - TAMU is going to either purchase or rent 48 tents. they may be all of one size or a combination of tent sizes. We have made the decision to NOT consider tents 40x40 or larger. We have listed Quantity of 1 of the specific sizes just to get the sizes priced. Again - whichever size (or sizes) we choose - we are looking to "obtain" 48 tents.

Answered by: Clyde Oberg

8/3/2020 8:26 AM CDT

Subject = Rental Installation (DETAILS PARTY RENTAL LLC)

Public Thread

Q: When bidding on the rental pricing, should we also include labor, or will your team provide that as well?

Question added by: Details Party Rental

7/31/2020 11:37 AM CDT

A: TAMU will provide labor for any rental 8/3/2020
UPDATE: We understand that most insurance providers for vendors will not allow for set-up by TAMU's third Party. If that is a requirement of any vendor, TAMU will work with the successful vendor to have the tents set up "appropriately".

Answered by: Clyde Oberg

8/3/2020 8:28 AM CDT

Subject = Insurance (Tents Of Brenham, Inc. dba Tents Over Texas)

Public Thread

Q: If TAMU rents these tents and structures, will they be providing the liability insurance and equipment damage insurance? Our insurance companies will not cover if we do not install the tents.

Question added by: Kim Mills

7/31/2020 10:18 AM CDT

A: The expectation is that the vendor will cover liability issues that are directly related to the vendor's work. TAMU will assume liability for the tents once they are set-up and will be responsible for the damage waivers.

Answered by: Clyde Oberg

8/3/2020 8:23 AM CDT

Subject = TAMU Third Party Building Maintenance Entity (Tents Of Brenham, Inc. dba Tents Over Texas)

Public Thread

Q: A 66' x 82' structure is an 8 to 10 hour installation process. Is the TAMU Third Party Building Maintenance Entity trained in installation of tents and structures?

Question added by: Kim Mills

7/31/2020 10:10 AM CDT

A: The answer is "No", but that is the process that TAMU seeks to follow.

Answered by: Clyde Oberg

7/31/2020 11:00 AM CDT

Subject = 75' x 75' tent (Tents Of Brenham, Inc. dba Tents Over Texas)

Public Thread

Q: Tents over 40' wide are either pole tents or structure tents because frames over 40' wide are unstable and dangerous. Structures are measured in meters and in the US we convert measurements to fee. 66' x 82' is probably closest to the 75' x 75'on your bid request. Is this a size that is acceptable for bid?

Question added by: Kim Mills

7/31/2020 10:05 AM CDT

A: Yes, we have put the sizes out there as approximate sizes, asking that vendors provide us with their sizes that are close.

Answered by: Clyde Oberg

7/31/2020 11:01 AM CDT
