8. Confidentiality. Each party agrees to regard and preserve as confidential all non-public information provided by the other party relating to the business, systems, operations, strategic plans, clients, pricing (including, but not limited to, the pricing terms herein), methods, processes, financial data, programs, and/or products of the other party in any form, that are designated as "confidential," or a reasonable person knows or reasonably should understand to be confidential (herein "Confidential Information"). For purposes of this Agreement, Customer's Confidential Information shall include Customer Data, and any information disclosed to Zoom by the Customer relating to the business, systems, operations, strategic plans, clients, pricing, methods, processes, financial data, programs, and/or products of the Customer.  - 8.1 Exclusions. "Confidential Information" shall not include Customer Content or information that (a) is already rightfully known to a party at the time it is obtained from the other party, free from any obligation to keep such information confidential; (b) is or becomes publicly known or available through no wrongful act of a party; (c) is rightfully received from a third party without restriction and without breach of this Agreement; or (d) is developed by a party without the use of any proprietary, non-public information provided by the other party under this Agreement.
 - 8.2 Exception. Either party may disclose Confidential Information where required by law, regulation, or court order, provided that the party subject to such law, regulation or court order shall, where permitted, notify the other party of any such use or requirement prior to disclosure in order to afford such other party an opportunity to seek a protective order to prevent or limit disclosure of the information to third parties.
 - 8.3 Confidentiality Period and Obligations. The confidentiality obligations set forth in this section of the Agreement shall remain in effect for a period of five (5) years from the disclosure of the information. Both parties agree (a) to take reasonable steps to protect the other party's Confidential Information, and these steps must be at least as protective as those the receiving party takes to protect its own Confidential Information, and no less than a reasonable standard of care; (b) to notify the disclosing party promptly upon discovery of any unauthorized use or disclosure of Confidential Information; and (c) in the event of any unauthorized disclosure by a receiving party, to cooperate with the disclosing party to help regain control of the Confidential Information and prevent further unauthorized use or disclosure of it.

Zoom may also suspend Customer's and/or an End User's use of or access to any Service if it reasonably believes that such suspension is necessary to prevent imminent harm to Zoom, Zoom's network, any End User, or any third party communicating with an End User. Zoom may immediately terminate access if it reasonably believes Customer is in breach of Section 2.4. Any such suspension, disconnection, or termination shall be without liability to Zoom, and Customer will remain responsible for all recurring Charges incurred during the period of suspension or disconnection.

9.4 Termination by Zoom Due to Change in Law. In the event of any change in Law that has the effect of materially increasing Zoom's costs to provide Service hereunder or effectively cancels, changes or supersedes any material term or provision of this Agreement (collectively "Change in Law") either party may, on thirty (30) days' prior written notice to the other require that they enter into good faith negotiations to revise the Agreement to appropriately address the Change in Law. If the Parties are unable to agree on such revisions within thirty (30) days from the date of notice, Zoom may terminate this Agreement with immediate effect.

10. Responsibilities upon Termination.

Customer shall provide Zoom with prompt written notice of any Downtime. If Zoom fails to correct any Downtime situation within fifteen (15) business days after receipt of such notice, Customer may terminate this Agreement.

12. Zoom Marketplace. The Zoom Marketplace is a site where third party developers may make available applications that are interoperable with the Services and is further defined in Exhibit A.

13. Managed Domains. The Managed Domains functionality is made available to certain Customers and is subject to the terms as further defined in Exhibit A.

Zoom's sole and exclusive obligation, and Customer's sole and exclusive remedy for a breach of this warranty shall be that Zoom shall use commercially reasonable efforts to modify the Services to conform in all material respects to the Zoom documentation, and if Zoom is unable to materially restore such functionality within thirty (30) days from receipt of written notice of said breach, Customer shall be entitled to terminate the Agreement upon written notice and shall be entitled to receive a pro-rata refund of the unused Charges that have been paid in advance (if any) under this Agreement. This warranty shall be in effect for the first thirty (30) days ("Warranty Period") from the date the applicable Services are first provided to the Customer. This indemnity will not apply to any Claim that the infringement arose from the combination of the Services with software, hardware, content, data or other items not supplied by Zoom, where the Services alone would not be infringing and where such combination is not normal or reasonably anticipated in Zoom's marketing materials or other Services documentation. In the event that the licensed Services are, or in Zoom's sole opinion are likely to be, enjoined due to the type of infringement described in this Section 15, Zoom, at its option and expense, may (a) replace the applicable Services with functionally equivalent non-infringing technology or (b) obtain a license for Customer's continued use of the applicable Services, or, if the foregoing alternatives are not reasonably available to Zoom (c) terminate this Agreement and refund any sums prepaid for Services not provided as a result of such termination.

The indemnified party may, at its own expense, assist in the defense if it so chooses, but the indemnifying party shall (in the case where Customer is the indemnified party, subject to the consent of the Attorney General of the State of Texas) control the defense and all negotiations relative to the settlement of any such claim. Any settlement intended to bind the indemnified party shall not be final without the indemnified party's written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

A state agency may not accept a bid or award a contract that includes proposed financial participation by a person who received compensation from the agency to participate in preparing the specifications or request for proposals on which the bid or contract is based. The Texas Government Code requires the following statement: "Under Section 2155.004, Texas Government Code, the Zoom certifies that the individual or business entity named in this bid or contract is not ineligible to receive the specified contract and acknowledges that this contract may be terminated and payment withheld if this certification is inaccurate."

Upon Customer's written request, Zoom will provide specified public information exchanged or created under this Agreement that is not otherwise excepted from disclosure under Chapter 552, Texas Government Code, to Customer in a non-proprietary format acceptable to Customer. As used in this provision, "public information" has the meaning assigned Section 552.002, Texas Government Code, but only includes information to which Customer has a right of access. Zoom acknowledges that Customer may be required to post a copy of the fully executed Agreement on its Internet website in compliance with Section 2261.253(a)(1), Texas Government Code.

Dispute Resolution. The dispute resolution process provided in Chapter 2260, Texas Government Code, and the related rules adopted by the Texas Attorney General pursuant to Chapter 2260, shall be used by Customer and Zoom to attempt to resolve any claim for breach of contract made by Zoom that cannot be resolved in the ordinary course of business. c. REMEDICATION. If Customer notifies Zoom that any furnished ICT product or service is not in compliance with such requirements and standards, Zoom shall, at no cost to Customer, remediate or replace the non-compliant ICT products or services within the period specified by Customer. If Zoom fails to complete the remediation or replacement within the specified time, Customer may terminate this Agreement without liability or have the necessary remediation performed on Customer's behalf, and Zoom shall promptly reimburse Customer for any expenses incurred by Customer on such remediation.

Franchise Tax Certification. If Zoom is a taxable entity subject to the Texas Franchise Tax (Chapter 171, Texas Tax Code), then Zoom certifies that it is not currently delinquent in the payment of any franchise (margin) taxes or that Zoom is exempt from the payment of franchise (margin) taxes.

Products and Materials Produced in Texas. Zoom agrees that in accordance with Section 2155.4441, Texas Government Code, in performing its duties and obligations under this Agreement, Zoom will purchase products and materials produced in Texas when such products and materials are available at a price and time comparable to products and materials produced outside of Texas.

Loss of Funding. Performance by Customer under this Agreement may be dependent upon the appropriation and allotment of funds by the Texas State Legislature (the "Legislature"). If the Legislature fails to appropriate or allot the necessary funds, Customer will issue written notice to Zoom and Customer may terminate this Agreement without further duty or obligation hereunder. Zoom acknowledges that appropriation of funds is beyond the control of Customer.

Prompt Payment Act. Payment from Customer will be due thirty (30) days from the date Customer receives the invoice. All past due amounts will be subject to a finance charge in accordance with the Texas Prompt Payment Act, Chapter 2251, Texas Government Code.

State Auditor's Office. Zoom understands that acceptance of funds under this Agreement constitutes acceptance of the authority of the Texas State Auditor's Office, or any successor agency (collectively, "Auditor"), to conduct an audit or investigation in connection with those funds pursuant to Section 51.9335(c), Texas Education Code. Zoom agrees to cooperate with the Auditor in the conduct of the audit or investigation, including without limitation, providing all records requested. Zoom will include this provision in all contracts with permitted subcontractors.

Non-Waiver. Zoom expressly acknowledges that Customer is an agency of the State of Texas and nothing in this Agreement will be construed as a waiver or relinquishment by Customer of its right to claim such exemptions, privileges, and immunities as may be provided by law.

Zoom Certification regarding Boycotting Israel. Pursuant to Chapter 2270, Texas Government Code, Zoom certifies Zoom (1) does not currently boycott Israel; and (b) will not boycott Israel during the Term of this Agreement.
