Q&A Board

Subject = On-Site Service (Ecotronics Ventures LLC)

Private Thread

Q: Hello, In the description of the desktops we see that "4 Years Basic On-Site Service" is required. We thus have a few questions: - Can you be specific about what a Basic level of support means? - Are you expecting a local Qatari company to provide the said on-site service? - Would this be just a support service that involves TAMU IT in Doha to be able to interact directly with Dell without the awardee being responsible for this particular service? On the other hand, we would like to know about how equipment warranty should be handled. Would it be through the awardee or directly with the manufacturer? Thank you for the clarification!

Question added by: Martin Cadirola

CDT

A: Hello We are expecting a technician to visit on site (Doha, Qatar), troubleshoot and repair/further coordinate with Dell as needed. We prefer warranty to be handled through awarded vendor.

Q: Thank you. Could you provide an actual delivery address to avoid any confusion as to shipping address and actual costs? Thank you.
